

George Lombard Taken by Death

Prominent Augustan Passes at Residence

George Simpson Lombard, 68, died at his residence, 2233 Kings Way, yesterday after an extended illness. Funeral services will be announced later by Elliotts Funeral home.

Mr. Lombard was a native Augustan, and formerly was owner of the Lombard Iron Works. The family has requested that flowers be omitted.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Alice Clark Lombard; one son, George R. Lombard II. of Augusta; five daughters Mrs. Charles W. Bowen Jr., Mrs. Stewart Barrett and Miss Marville Lombard, all of Augusta; Mrs. L. C. Irvine of New York, and Mrs. J. W. Chapman of Panama City, Fla.; his mother, Mrs. George R. Lombard of Augusta, and a sister, Mrs. S. A. Fortson of Augusta.

Augusta Chronicle
Augusta, GA
Friday, September 26, 1947