

Home at Latrobe Awaits Couple Traveling in East

Pittsburgh Newlyweds Take Honeymoon Journey After
Sacred Heart Ceremony—Etna Pair to Reside
In West Virginia After Trip

MR. AND MRS. ALBERT HYLAND MERCER (Florence E. Martin), who were married Monday, will live in Latrobe after an Eastern trip. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Martin, of Marchand St. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert George Mercer, of Elmer St.

The ceremony was in Sacred Heart Church. The bride wore a gown of brocaded satin and a white tulle veil with cap decorated with orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of gardenias, roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Doris Mercer, maid of honor, wore a gown of pink lace and a bouquet of pink tea roses. Misses Sally Jackson and Marguerite White, bridesmaids, wore pastel lace gowns and carried bouquets of tea roses and larkspur.

George E. Martin was best man, and ushers Henry Charles Martin and James Linner.

* * *

Gilleland were attendants. An Eastern trip followed the wedding. The bride wore a blue and white ensemble.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. William Westland (Etta Walker), who were married June 30, will be at home in Charleston, W. Va., after a Southern trip.

At Pandanus FOR
It's Beauty

You'l

The Pittsburgh Press

Pittsburgh, PA

Sunday, July 5, 1936

Page 24, Columns 6 & 7